BEER CONFISCATED.

Fifty Kegs Recently Seized Will Soon Be Spilled.

Burlington, July 24.—Fifty kegs of beer and ale recently seized by Sheriff Horton at the cold storage plant on South Champlain street will soon be destroyed as the stuff was confiscated Saturday in city court by Judge Mower. He will make an order for its disposal within a few days. It will undoubtedly be turned into the sewer in his presence. This beer was shipped to Burlington by the Berkshire Brewing company of Pittsfield, Mass. It was consigned to certain dealers here but they denied that they had ordered it and as the brewing company did not appear there were no representations of ownership. It was accordingly confiscated as contraband. The date of the spilling will be looked for with interest as it has been a long time since that amount of liquor has been turned into a Burlington sewer.

BLOW UP SINGER FACTORIES.

Sewing Machine Works in Poland Are Destroyed by Bombs.

Berlin, July 24.—The Vossische Zeitung yesterday afternoon published a dispatch from Katowitz, Prussia, stating that the Singer sewing machine factories at Sosnowice and Bendzin were blown up by bombs at about the same time yesterday. At Sosnowice six persons were severely wounded, and at Bendzin four were badly hurt. Sosnowice and Bendzin are in Russian Poland, near the Silesian border. They are factory towns, five miles apart, with a population of about 20,000 each.

BOMB IN PARIS.

Three Persons Injured by Explosion on the Rue Bondy.

Paris, July 24.—A bomb was exploded this morning on the Rue Bondy. Three persons were injured.

Fatal Heat in Boston.

Boston, July 24.—Two deaths attributed to heat were reported yesterday. Michael Reddington died on a street in Charlestown, and Charles West, a negro, was found dead in a South End lodging house. There was no moderation today in the heat and humidity which created such discomfort yesterday in the greater part of New England.

CHALLENGE FROM D. F. DAVIS.

D. F. Davis is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Barre or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases.

No confidence is he that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure in a short time, that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction Mr. Davis will sell a regular fifty-cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia, and all forms of malarial and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

Take advantage of Mr. Davis' challenge and secure a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with his personal guarantee to refund your money if it does not help you.

There is no need of suffering with constipation, dyspepsia or liver disease when you can get sixty doses of a scientific medicine for their cure like Dr. Howard's specific for the small sum of 25 cents.

In case of rain a suitable hall has been engaged and will be duly advertised.

ICE DEALERS INDICTED.

Cincinnati Grand Jury Takes Action Against Local Trust.

Cincinnati, July 24.—Fifteen indictments on charges of restraint of trade for advancing the price of ice were returned yesterday by the grand jury. Ten individuals and five firms were accused, all being members of the Ice Dealers' Exchange. Those indicted are members of the Exchange, who attended a meeting on May 30, when a general increase of the price was decided.

A Bride of Morocco.

Says an observer of conditions in modern Morocco: "The wife is bought in Morocco today, and the sum paid is agreed upon between her father and the would-be husband. Sometimes a cow may be sufficient to procure a bride, at other times many cattle and several dollars are necessary for her purchase. The bride is, of course, dressed in suitable costume, but the most interesting part of her toilet to a stranger is the decoration of henna. The henna, pounded and mixed with lemon juice, is sometimes painted directly on to her face, arms, hands and legs. At other times a stencil pattern is put on her flesh and the perforated holes filled up with the henna. By the time this is completed she is tattooed with a dark design. Society women in more enlightened countries who wear lace houses in a hot summer sun often find their arms and neck burned into a pattern which has much the same effect as the henna tattoo on the poor little Moorish maid."

How the Burro Eats Thistle.

The Rocky mountain burro, one of the most sagacious of animals, seeks the thistle as a favorite food, and the pungent spines with which it protects its leaves at every angle are doubtless a recognition on its part of its fondness of grazing animals for it. Few experiences of frontier life are more amusing than to watch the donkey's attack upon a large bull thistle. It walks about it, seeking for a favorable opening, projects his lip gingerly against its spines and jerks back as he feels its prickles. He surveys it pensively for a moment or two and then slowly raises his foot and strikes it, pausing to watch the effect of the blow. He then perhaps strikes it from the other side and watches again. The blows become rapid, and at length it is broken down and thoroughly trampled, after which it is consumed to the last vestige.—Country Life in America.

Sixty Thousand Seeds to the Plant.

The common purslane is one of the wonders of botany as far as seeds are concerned. A single seed of this plant will produce about twenty seed pods in a season. The average number of seeds in each of these, by actual count, is 6,000, making 60,000 in all. As far as we have been able to learn there is no instance of similar fruitfulness in any plant found growing in this country. A single plant of either the Jamestown weed ("Jimson"), the butterweed, the ragweed and some of the verbes produce an enormous number of seeds, but it is doubtful if any one of them produces one-fourth as many in a year as the purslane does.—St. Louis Republic.

One English Seal.

The parish council of Rudwick, Sussex, England, possesses an official seal in which the occupations of all the members are indicated. Thus the vicar is represented by an open Bible, the farmer by some trees, the coal dealer by a sack, the miller by a mill, the innkeeper by a bottle and jug, the bootmaker by a boot, the auctioneer by a hammer, the doctor by a medicine bottle, the carpenter by a plane and the baker by a loaf.

The Violin.

Each instrument excels in some particular passage, the piano in scale passages, the harp in arpeggio, the mandolin in the rapid repetition of one note, the banjo in the rapid playing of broken chords, and so with other instruments; but the violin can beat them all on their own ground, while there is much violin music that can be played on no other instrument.

An Optimist.

"Blank started out to be a rose specialist, but the insects ate up his flowers so fast he had to give it up."
"Wasn't he discouraged?"
"Not he found so many interesting varieties of bugs he went in for that subject, and now he's just as enthusiastic over bugs as he was over flowers!"—Detroit Free Press.

Nothing Doing.

"Miss May," began Mr. Roamley, "would you—er—be mad if I were to kiss you?"
"Not necessarily," replied the bright girl, "but I would certainly be mad to let you!"—Philadelphia Press.

Names and Divorces.

An Australian divorce court judge thinks that there is a subtle connection between high sounding feminine baptismal names and matrimonial unhappiness. He has noticed that the names which generally come under his judicial cognizance are Gladys, Gwendolen, Eryntrude and the like and that he seldom or never in his official capacity hears of a Mary or a Bridget.

LAND GRABBERS PLAN TO SEIZE NEW FIELD.

British Socialist Body Served With Writ of Eviction—Bernard Shaw Refuses Aid.

New York, July 24.—A special cable from London to the Sun says: After holding for three weeks the tract of land they seized near Manchester, the land grabbers, led by a Socialist of the name of Williams have been served with a writ of eviction. George Bernard Shaw, the writer, has written to Vonnegut Cunningham, who heads the West Ham land grabbers, sympathizing with them, but warning them to keep within the law, the breaking of which is the most serious thing a man can do. He adds: "Don't put your head in the lion's mouth if you can help it. Study your legal position carefully, for if you give the enemy a change they will not lose it, and the unemployed will not help you out."

Although Mr. Shaw sympathizes with the land grabbers, he refuses to subscribe financial aid for their support, saying: "I cannot finance a revolution." The Rev. Wilson Carlisle, honorary chief secretary of the Church Army, has visited the West Ham camp. He donated money and promised to supply tools.

The leaders assert that the movement is gaining strength. Hundreds will seize another area in a day or two. The Rev. Carlisle has said in this connection: "I am not in favor of the movement."

AMERICANS DIE IN BATTLE.

Fierce Conflict Between a Force of Constabulary and Puljanese.

Manila, July 24.—A detachment of constabulary, Lieut. Williams commanding, encountered a band of 600 Puljanese near Bureau on the island of Leyte, Sunday morning. Lieut. Worswick, 12 privates and Civilian Scout McBride were killed.

The constabulary were driven back and two revolvers. The bodies of Worswick, McBride, and ten privates were recovered. Reinforcements of constabulary have been sent from the nearest station. Major Neville, commanding the military, has ordered a company of the Twenty-fourth regular infantry to be hurried to the scene. Major Neville reports that there are from 400 to 1,000 Puljanese in the field.

Lieut. Worswick was a graduate of the University of Kansas and was appointed to the constabulary last February. He graduated from the constabulary school June 30, and this was his first battle.

Bureau is situated in an isolated portion of Leyte.

DINEEN WAS STAR PITCHER

Kept Cleveland Down To Six Scattered Hits, While Boston Bunched Its Hits at Right Time.

Boston, July 24.—Boston walked away with the game with Cleveland yesterday by the score of 3 to 1, mainly through the good pitching of Dineen who allowed but six scattered hits. Townsend also pitched good ball but the locals succeeded in bunting their hits. The home team played an errorless game, while the only error credited to Cleveland was a muff of Parent's fly by Rossmann in the eighth inning.

Cleveland got its only tally in the first try. With two down Turner hit one past Morgan for a single and took second on a passed ball. Then Lajoie placed a single in right field, scoring Turner. Lary was forced at second by Rossmann.

The locals were unable to hit Townsend to good advantage during the first part of the game, although both Freeman and Stahl secured two-baggers in different innings. But in the seventh Hoyce started off with a single to right field and Freeman beat out a punt. Morgan then sent both runners along with a sacrifice, and on Armbrester's out to Flock Hoyce went across the plate. Freeman scored on a passed ball.

One more score was made by Boston in the ninth inning although it was not necessary to win the game. With one out Rossmann dropped Parent's fly. But Lajoie was forced by Stahl. Singles by Ferris and Hoyce brought Stahl in, and Freeman closed the inning by fanning.

SAGE ESTATE OVER $100,000,000.

Many Surprises, It Is Said, Contained in His Will.

New York, July 24.—Colonel J. J. Slocum and Charles W. Osburn, brother-in-law and confidential man respectively, of the late Russell Sage, and co-executors of his estate with Mrs. Sage, were in conference with the legal representatives of the Sage estate yesterday. Mr. Sage's will probably be probated soon after the funeral. A former business associate of Mr. Sage expressed the opinion that the estate would aggregate well beyond $100,000,000 and that the will would contain many surprises. Counsel for the estate yesterday applied to Surrogate Thomas for permission to carry on Mr. Sage's business pending the admission of the will to probate. The surrogate said he would sign the order later.

The death of Russell Sage was probably less a factor in yesterday's stock market, which opened heavy than the dissolution of the Russian Douma. Persons conversant with the affairs of the late Mr. Sage stated that he had comparatively little money out on loans and that his death would hardly disturb local financial conditions.

WORKED TOO HARD.

Hon. John J. Flaherty Broke Down After Douglas Campaign.

Gloucester, Mass., July 24.—Hon. John J. Flaherty, judge of the superior court, died yesterday at the age of 49 years. He had been sick for some time. His illness dated from the Douglas campaign in this state, during which time he broke down from overwork. He leaves a widow and three children.

IN LADY CURZON'S HONOR.

Memorial Service Was Held in London Yesterday.

London, July 24.—A memorial service in honor of Lady Curzon was held at St. Margaret's, Westminster, yesterday. The service was attended by leaders of both political parties, Ambassadors Reid, and a large concourse of people.

WORKMEN CARRIED DOWN

Many Rescued While Others Die in Ruins—Block Fell With a Crash That Was Heard For Miles—Cause a Mystery.

South Framingham, Mass., July 24.—At least twenty men were buried in the ruins of the new brick block on Concord street, which collapsed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Eight bodies had been taken out last night and nine men were missing.

These men have been removed to the hospital. George M. Amson, owner of the block; Walter Cunningham, John Blackett, John Damon, Charles Blythe, John Dillon, H. L. Sawyer and an unidentified gas man. Two of these are reported dying. Three have broken legs. The Ninth Regiment hospital corps and several companies were sent over from the camp to assist in the rescue. A ladder truck on its way to the scene ran into a telephone pole and was wrecked. Some of the firemen were injured.

The block fell with
